2-week itinerary suggestion

Croatia

If your Mediterranean fantasies feature balmy days by sapphire waters in the shade of ancient walled towns, Croatia is the place to turn them into reality.

Croatia's extraordinary island-speckled coastline is indisputably its main attraction. The first thing that strikes you is the remarkable clarity of the water. When it's set against a dazzling white pebbly beach, the water sparkles with a jewel-like intensity in shades of emerald and sapphire. There are long sandy and shingly stretches too – perfect for lazy days. If that all sounds too relaxing, there are water-based activities at hand to lure you off your sun lounger – snorkelling, diving, kayaking, windsurfing and sailing, just for starters.

Day 1

Welcome aboard!
Enjoy some refreshments while the crew assists guests settling in.

Split, the second biggest Croatian city, is known for ancient sights, sandy beaches and rich nightlife. Visit Diocletian's palace, walk through the old city, then head to the Split Riva and enjoy its Mediterranean atmosphere. Sit for a coffee in Riva's bars and enjoy the atmosphere. Don't miss some of the beaches in Split, especially Bacvice.

Dine

Adriana Hvar Spa Hotel, Palace Paladini, Amfora, Hvar Grand Beach Resort or Carpe Diem.

Overnight

In port.

Day*Split>Hvar*2

In the late morning, depart for Hvar. The island of Hvar is the queen of the Croatian Dalmatian islands. The ancient city has a rich history. With its architecture, beautiful nature and mild climate many would describe it as a true fairy-tale city.

Hvar Town may be the most stunning town on the island but don't miss the chance to visit Stari Grad, the oldest village on the island, and Jelsa, as well as a smattering of small villages dotting the coast.

Dine

Adrianna Hvar Hotel, Palace Paladini, Amfora Hvar Grand Beach Resort and Carpe Diem.

Overnight

In port or at anchor.

Day

Hvar > Trogir

3

Declared a World Heritage Town in 1997 by Unesco, the town of Trogir is rich in history. Nicknamed the “Stone Beauty”, this gorgeous seaside city is considered to be one of the best preserved medieval towns in Europe.

Trogir is perfect for aimless wandering and leisurely exploring. It checks all of the boxes for my “perfect small town” criteria: walkable, scenic, easygoing vibe, great local food, and ideal for people-watching.

Do not miss the Cathedral of St Lawrence, its bell tower was built in the 14th and 16th centuries and can be climbed to see fantastic views from the top.

Dine

Dine on board or try Konoba TRS, recommended by the Michelin Guide

Overnight

In port or at anchor.

Day
Trogir > Sibenik & Krka Falls
4

Holding the title of the oldest native Croatian town on the Adriatic coast, Sibenik served as the seat of Croatian kings in the past, including King Petar Kresimir, after whom the city was named. So-called Kresimir's city, located in the bay where the river Krka meets the Adriatic Sea.

Krka is one of the two Croatian national parks that contain lakes and waterfalls! Situated in the middle of Sibenik-Knin county in Croatia Krka national park covers a total area of 109 km<sup>2</sup>. Krka is actually a river in Dalmatia, Croatia's southern-most province, which due to the local terrain forms into beautiful waterfalls. Krka river has 7 travertine barriers and a unique ecosystem.

Dine

On board or try Pelegrini in Sibenik or Zlatne Skoljke in Skradin.

Overnight
 At anchor.

Day
Kornati
5&6

The Kornatis, also known as the Stomorski islands, are composed of 130 uninhabited islands, islets and reefs. They are the largest and most dense archipelago in the Adriatic sea.

The island of Dugi Otok with its deep bay Telašćica is situated in the immediate vicinity, northwest of the Kornati archipelago, and forms, together with the Kornati islands, a unique natural and cultural entity.

One of the most famous phenomena found in the Kornati National Park and the Telašćica Nature Park are the 'crowns', locally known as krune or stene, i.e. steep cliffs found on southwestern island's edges of both parks.

Dine

Dine on board or try Festa, Core Lounge Bar or Opat.

Overnight

Ar anchor.

Day
Kornati > Zadar
7

A city of romance and love, a place of passion and spirit! Zadar is the oldest continuously-inhabited Croatian city.

Surrounded by historical ramparts, Zadar is treasury of the archaeological and monumental riches of ancient and medieval times, Renaissance and many contemporary architectural achievements such as the first Sea Organ in the world.

Enjoy a beautiful day discovering the city and its hidden treasures.

Dine

Try Fosa (recommended by the Michelin Guide) or Kastel at Hotel Bastion

Overnight
 Cruise to Brac.

Day
Zadar > Brac
8

Wake up in Brac!

Brac is the largest island in central Dalmatia, with several towns and villages and a dramatic landscape of steep cliffs, inky waters and pine forests. The highest peak of the island, Vidova Gora (778m), is the highest peak of all Croatian islands.

Brac is renowned for its vine. The most common grape varieties planted on the island are Posip (white wine), and Plavac Mali (red wine). A couple of wineries on the island are worth a visit, such as Stina Winery - a state-of-art winery located at Bol's quayside.

Dine

Try Vagabundo or Agrotourism Ranjak. After dinner try Varadero for cocktails and dancing.

Overnight
 At anchor.

Day
Brac > Pakleni Islands
9

After lunch, head to the Pakleni islands. Paklinski or Pakleni islands, translated as Hell's islands, Along with Kornati national park, the islands are probably its most visited part of Croatia.

South of Ždrilca is Mlini bay, and, according to many, the most beautiful bay of the Pakleni islands. A small island in the bay changes daily from a peninsula to an island according to the tide. The west side of Ždrilca and Mlini ends with the islands of Planikovac and Borovac, offering plenty of shade and a beautiful view just a couple of meters from the coast. Enjoy the serene surroundings and a day filled with fun on the yacht.

Dine

Lunch & dinner on board.

Overnight

At anchor.

Day
Plekini Islands > Vis
10

The yacht's tender will take guests to explore Bisevo, the most remote inhabited island of Croatia and the channel between Vis and Bisevo. The Blue Cave, also known as the Blue Grotto, is a stunning natural treasure located on the island.

After, head to Stiniva Beach, framed by iconic cliffs cutting deep into the narrow bay.

Dine

Lunch & dinner on board.

Overnight

At anchor.

Day
Vis > Korcula
11

One of the greenest islands in the Adriatic Sea, with abundant vineyards and olive groves, Korcula is known for keeping tradition alive with age-old religious ceremonies, folk music and dances.

This island is known for its dense forest and the ancient Greeks called the island Black Korcula (Kerkyra melaina) for this reason.

At night well known Moreska Sword Dance, a colourful, choreographed sword dance is also worth seeing. The historic town of Korčula is on UNESCO's- tentative list.

Dine

Try the local cuisine at Lesic Dimitri or at the family run Konoba Komin.

Overnight
 At anchor.

Day
Korcula > Lastovo
12

Lastovo's archipelago has unique beauty with its mesmerizing crystal clear coastline which never fails to amaze guests from all around the world..There are lot's of hidden bays that are not accessible by land.

Lastovo is encompassed by a Its white rocky shores are accompanied by the shade of pine trees which create a seaside oasis, ideal for a day by the sea.

Numerous bays, cliffs and an island group called Lastovnjaci on the eastern side are a real submarine "heaven" for divers. If you want to learn to dive, the island offers two diving schools.

Dine

Enjoy lunch and dinner on board.

Overnight
 At anchor.

Day
Lastovo > Mljet
13

Mljet is Dalmatia's most southerly, most verdant and, some would argue, most beautiful isle. With its National Park with unique woods of Aleppo pine, cliffy coasts, caves, mud and mineral springs and two spectacular salt lakes in its centre, Mljet is a favorite stop for many.

Visitors are almost entirely drawn to the tourist enclave around Pomena. The remainder of the island retains the unspoilt air of tranquillity that, according to legend, captivated Odysseus for seven years.

Dine

On board or you can try Stermasi.

Overnight

At anchor.

Day
Mjlet > Dubrovnik
14

Early morning departure to arrive to Dubrovnik. Wrapped in a tightly knit ribbon of stone walls, Dubrovnik perches dramatically on cliffs over the turquoise Adriatic Sea. The Unesco-listed old town, quaint surroundings and stunning coastline make Dubrovnik an ideal destination.

In addition to world-renowned architecture and global stardom for its role as King's Landing in Game of Thrones. Take in the splendour of Stradun, the main street, then lose yourself in the grid of narrow stone alleyways. Don't avoid the stairs – they lead up to the town's most picturesque, residential areas.

Dine

Michelin Star Restaurant 360, Nautika or Proto

Overnight

At anchor.

Day*Dubrovnik*15

Enjoy a farewell brunch on board before the crew assists you with your onward journey.

Take one more day to visit the breath-taking city of Dubrovnik, “the Pearl of the Adriatic”, and discover its treasures of medieval art and architecture.
