Part of Benetti's extremely successful Classic 115 series, BANG! is the result of the close cooperation between the shipyard and Stefano Righini. As such she is a pedigree yacht with uncompromising quality and exquisitely updated interior and exterior spaces following a thorough refit in 2016 and mechanical and cosmetic upgrades in 2019.

Her main deck features areas for formal and informal dining and an extravagant and stylish main salon that evokes relaxation courtesy of its striking Mediterranean-inspired style and color palette. The main salon is separated from the formal dining area by a bar; the upper salon also has a full bar, a small office area and large lounging area.

Her design is based on the concept of fluidity between indoor and outdoor living and as such she boasts the perfect blend of alfresco areas and interior living spaces.
